I have known Glen Campbell from Action Appliance Service for many years now. We refer our customers to Glen when they require appliance service. The feedback that we receive from these customers is always excellent. Any future service calls that these customers may need, they tend to call us again, if they have misplaced his phone number, and ask for him directly.

We are very critical of who we use for service referrals, since this is a direct reflection of our own business. Glen has never let us down and our only regret is that he doesn't work for us!

Thanks,
Allan Lingelbach
